

Mr. SPEAKER.—Has the member got anything to say in support of the proposition that he is making that officers should not help the Ministers? Does not he want correct information?

Sri SANJEEVANATH AIKALA.—That is why I raised the point of order.

Mr. SPEAKER.—He must not think that this is an examination room where examinees are put in a hole and they are asked to answer from memory.

Sri SANJEEVANATH AIKALA.—We expect the Ministers to come prepared with the full information having studied the file. That is why we send our questions in advance and so they are expected to come prepared with all details.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Then he should send his supplementaries also in advance and then they can come prepared with answers for them.

Sri S. SIVAPPA.—Is it in order that chits are passed on to Ministers?

Mr. SPEAKER.—It is perfectly in order. It is in our own interest that they are supplied with the correct information through chits so that they may give the House the correct information. If that is not allowed, they may say that they want notice for getting the information.

Sri S. SIVAPPA.—If they are not well prepared, let them ask for time and we can give them time so that they may come well prepared.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—It is very helpful if Ministers are supplied with the correct information through chits.

Mr. SPEAKER.—An experienced member like Sri Muckannappa also says that it is very helpful. This is not a question of examining the Ministers whether they have come after committing everything to memory.

Sri S. M. KRISHNA.—Sir, my question was not answered. My question was whether the rate for lead charges given in the award is in consonance with the schedule of charges for lead prescribed by the P.W.D.?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—The contract says ‘schedule of rates as mentioned’, but when they have to do certain things and bring something from a distance more than what was contemplated in the original schedule, then necessarily they will have to be paid more.

Several members rose to put supplementaries.

Mr. SPEAKER.—We have taken 1 hour and 10 minutes for Questions. Only the first one hour is prescribed for questions. I cannot allow any more supplementaries. The Chief Minister has said with regard to one or two points that he will get the information. If members have any more points, let them pass on their questions to me and I will have them answered in 3 days.

ಶ್ರೀ ಎಸ್. ಶಿವಪ್ಪ.—ದೇಶದಲ್ಲಿ ಸಾರ್ವಜನಿಕ ವಾಗಿ ಬಹುತೇಕ ಈ ವಿಷಯದ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಜನರಲ್ಲಿ ಒಂದು ಅನುಮಾನವಂತಾಗಿರುವುದರಿಂದ, ಈ ಹಾಂಚುಬ್ಬಿ ವಾದ ವಿಷಯದಲ್ಲಿ ನರಿಯಾದ ನಮ್ಮಜಾಲಿಯಿಂದ ಬರದೆ ಇರುವುದರಿಂದ ಇದನ್ನು ಕೂಲಂಕವಾಗಿ ವಿಚಾರಣಾದಲ್ಲಿ ಪಟ್ಟಿಕೆ ಎಂಕೆಪ್ಪಿರಿ ಮಾಡಲು ನರ್ಮಾರ್ಥದವರು ಪರಿಶೀಲನೆ ಮಾಡುತ್ತಾರೆಯೇ?

Mr. SPEAKER.—He has already said that if any particulars are placed before him he will have it enquired.

Sri S. SIVAPPA.—If that is so, how can we have confidence?

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA.—It looks as though it is in his interest not to have confidence. I cannot help it.

Sri G. DUGGAPPA.—Will the Government be pleased to place the entire record and the report of the arbitrators on the Table of the House?

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Chief Minister has said that, that will be done.
